

IES "NOSA SEÑORA DOS OLLOS GRANDES"
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

JCGL

RELATIVE CLAUSES

Combine the following sentences by means of NON-RESTRICTIVE RELATIVE CLAUSES:

1. Julius Caesar came to Britain in 55 BC. He was a powerful Roman general.
2. These cactus plants should not have too much water. They will grow in pots indoors.
3. They are still working on the motorway. Its completion date was last May.
4. The antiquities of Egypt should not be missed. Such a lot has been written about them.
5. The Irrawaddy flows through countless large swamps. It is one of the most important rivers in Asia.
6. The Dover-Calais hovercraft makes the crossing in 30 minutes. It carries about 20 vehicles.
7. The great fire of London destroyed a large part of the city. It broke out in 1666.
8. Helicopters can land near the centre of a large city. They do not need a long runway.

Combine the following sentences by means of RESTRICTIVE or NON-RESTRICTIVE RELATIVE CLAUSES:

1. Is that the new station? You pointed it out to me last week.
2. This is the man. I gave money to him this morning.
3. An old soldier sits begging on the pavement. His legs were shot away in the last war.
4. His stepmother was not very kind to him. He was living with her.
5. Last week I went to see Scarborough. He used to live in that town.
6. Bring me the cigarettes. I left them on the table. The table stands by the window.
7. Mozart spent the last ten years of his life in Vienna. His birthplace was Salzburg.
8. What was the name of the girl? She came here last night.
9. I'm sure it was John. He told her to do it.
10. The matter has been settled. You were arguing about it last night.